used only in aggravated cases and is described as follows: The prisoner stands squarely on his feet facing the wall with his arms extended at right angles and fastened to rings attached to the wall, the painful effect of this punishment being the result of long standing in the same position.Prior to May 1, 1903, the beginning of Mr. Morgan's administration, the commitments to the house of correction and Rutland county jail were 4,031, the punishments 227, or 5.7 to 100 per cent.; since that date the total commitments have been 8,111 and punishments 292 or a 60-100 per cent.

Moral Conditions.

We have thoroughly investigated the charges made concerning immoral conditions at the institution and find that these accusations have not been sustained.

Food Generally Good.

We find the food supplied to the prisoners to be prepared with care and from good and wholesome materials, ample in quantity and variety and well and properly served. Complaints have been made by the prisoners, that the hash at times was sour and meat unfit to eat. We find from their testimony that these occurrences were very rare and of no more frequency than would be liable in any institution, private or public, where preparations must be made in advance for the feeding of a large number of persons and at all seasons of the year.We find the daily cost of subsistence for each person to have been as follows:

In 1893-94	9 7-8c.
1895-96	9 3-4c.
1897-98	10 1-5c.
1899-00	9 7-10c.
1901-02	10 49-100c.
1903-04	10 9-100c.
1905-06	9 7-10c.

The commission found no fault with the diet of Supt. Morgan recommending an increase in the latter's salary to not exceed $3,000. The housekeeper, Mrs. Morgan, ought to draw more pay.

Should Discharge Bree.

We find that Mr. Bree in many respects is an excellent officer, but unfortunately he has a very offensive way in dealing with the prisoners and possesses an ungovernable temper. For this reason we deem it to be for the best interest of the state to dispense with his services, and so recommend.

Fee System Absurd.

As a result of our investigation we are convinced that the fee system, as it now exists, is in a large measure responsible for the overcrowded condition of the house of correction, and are satisfied that many arrests, convictions, and commitments are made which should not and would not be made were it not for the abuse of the fee system. We recommend that such legislation be enacted relative to this matter as will protect the state and the individual from the evil effects of the present system.It appeared, from evidence taken before us, that young boys, emigrants from countries adjoining the Canadian border, are occasionally made their way across the border in search of work, and at times become stranded at junction points in the northern part of the state and, upon asking for food or shelter, are arrested as tramps, tried, convicted, and sentenced to the house of correction and at the expiration of their sentence are taken and deported to Canada, by the emigration officer. In our judgment, it would be much better for the boys and less expense to the state if they were turned over to the emigration officer and deported at once rather than being sentenced to the house of correction and afterward turned over to the officer and deported. This method would save the state a large bill of expense, and the boys the disgrace of imprisonment and the evil effect of association with men who are criminals.It also appears from the evidence that there has been a great increase in the number of commitments for intoxication and breaches of the peace from some sections of the state and that it is the custom to prosecute and convict the prisoner of both offences, the arrest, trial, and conviction taking place at the same time, the same officers, and before the same court, the prisoner being committed on a mittimus for each offence on which the costs of commitment are taxed against him to the extent of twelve dollars and on each of which in conformity therewith he must serve three days' times for each dollar of all the costs and fines, the superintendent of the house of correction having no discretion in the matter and the prisoner serves the full time called for by the mittimus. After the sentence has expired and the prisoner is discharged, it often happens that the auditor disallows part of the costs as being illegal. This serving of time for costs disallowed by the auditor is a great injustice to the prisoner.In conclusion the commission reported: We find no evidence of graft or fraud in any department officer, or employee connected with the house of correction.

E. Scribner of Jericho, assignor to Western Electric Co., Chicago.Alanson Jones, colored, and Mrs.
Rogers, widow of Dorsey Rogers, of Peterburg, N. Y., a white woman, were married at East Pownal August 2 by Justice of the Peace Henry J. Barrington.
Jones and Mrs. Rogers were recently released from the house of correction at Rutland, where they had been serving six months' sentences.Mrs. Bridget Craven died August 6 at her home in Bennington. She was 90 years of age and had been in usual health to within a few days ago. She was born in county Galway, Ireland, but had been a resident of Bennington for more than sixty years. She is survived by two sons, a daughter, and ten grandchildren.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do not naturally grow. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly.
Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ in the Newborn's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs.
It itches instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit,
